

Remarks

This reissue application is being filed to correct a defective specification. When submitting the original application, Applicant mistakenly filed drawings pertaining to another draft of the specification. As such, the reference numerals in the specification did not correlate with the reference numerals in the drawings. The Examiner during prosecution also did not notice the error and the patent issued. The amendments to the specification above include correcting a typographical error in the specification as well as a replacement version of the detailed description of the invention to correctly correlate the reference numerals in the specification and drawings. No new matter is being added by such amendments.

Patent Document

Pursuant to 35 USC §251 and 37 CFR §1.178, Applicant has submitted herewith the original patent for which reissue is sought.

Assignment Statement

Applicant hereby states that the subject patent and this reissue application have not been assigned.
